Overview

ARIAS·U.S. is seeking dynamic, relevant, and interesting content for the 2020 Spring Conference to be held May 6-8, 2020 at the Ritz Carlton Amelia Island, Florida. The planning committee is looking for presentations on substantive insurance and reinsurance matters with great interest to companies, law firms, arbitrators and professionals within the insurance/reinsurance industry. The planning committee is also looking to avoid "talking head" presentations for the Spring Conference. We invite submissions that fit within the listed conference themes below that explore specific challenges, topics and issues in-depth and follow the conference formats listed below. Please review the details and guidelines of this RFP process thoroughly before proceeding.

Presentation Formats

Submissions should be interactive, skill-based and/or audience participative, including moderated roundtable discussions in small groups and other forms of presentation that encourage interaction and lively discussions. Possible formats include:

- Conversations that Matter* Roundtable Discussions (45 – 60 minutes) – Lead a roundtable discussion on a proposed topic. Roundtables are small, informal group discussions that give attendees the opportunity to exchange information, discuss best practices, and network with others around common themes and issues. All roundtable discussions will occur at the same time and attendees will have the opportunity to choose the table topic of their choice in advance. The role of the discussion lead at each table will be to guide the discussion, providing opening comments (about 2 – 3 minutes) on the topic and invite discussion by posing some relevant questions for the group to discuss. Discussion leads will serve as moderators during the group conversation. Each roundtable will have 8-10 attendees.
  Please note that a webinar training will be offered to selected presenters on how to lead a roundtable.

- Rapid Fire Case Presentation (10 presentations in 30 minutes, followed by Q&A) – This fast-paced session is designed to provide an engaging platform for speakers to exchange their ideas around a specific topic and stimulate discussion among attendees. Presenters will be allotted three (3) minutes to present on the following question "what is the most critical or important reinsurance or insurance case within the last three years?" The presentation should provide a snapshot of the case using just a few illustrative (not narrative) slides within the allotted time. The planning committee will select up to 10 presenters to do 3- minute presentations, followed by 15 to 30 minutes of moderated questions and discussion. This format is ideal to explore a range of perspectives on an issue, get a broad sense of the state of the industry, or offer several different answers to a question or problem.

- Interactive Panel Session (45 - 60 minutes) – A fully-formed panel consists of a moderator and multiple speakers, with a well-developed topic of discussion. Panelists should consider alternatives to the usual presentation/response format, such as limiting opening remarks and focusing on a moderated panel discussion using thoughtful questions to the panelists to encourage a lively discussion and debate. Panelists should present an idea to the audience. One example is a point/counterpoint panel discussion on a current issue. Ideally, the focus will shift from the presenters to the audience after the first 30 minutes of the session. For the remainder of the session, the moderator becomes a facilitator, inviting responses to comments and questions for the panelists and those around the room. The panel moderator is expected to manage the panel development process, open the panel by framing the discussion, and moderate the discussion among the panel and Q&A portion.

- Other Presentation Format – Please feel free to propose an additional presentation format; creativity is encouraged!
