ARTICLE SUBMISSION
Title of Article:	The title should be no longer than 10 words. It should state the broad topic of the article, but NOT describe the article in detail.
Subtitle:	The subtitle should be one complete sentence or question. It should work together with the title to give the reader a more complete sense of the article's contents.
Author(s):	The byline should include the author's full name and any degrees, certificates, or licenses the author has earned that are relevant to his or her qualifications to write the article.
Pull Quotes:	Authors should select three or four sentences from the article to be used as callouts or pull quotes, which appear in large type in the margins. The purpose of pull quotes is to whet the reader's appetite and make him/her want to dig in and start reading.
Article:	The page limit for submissions is 5 single-spaced or 10 double-spaced pages. Text should be in 12 point Times New Roman (or comparable) type, single spaced, with a blank line between paragraphs. Sentences should be separated by a single space. Reference numbers within the text should be written in Arabic and formatted as superscripts. Subheads are assumed to be Level 1 subheads unless otherwise marked. Level 1 subheads appear in boldfaced red type in the Quarterly. They should contain no more than six words. Level 2 subheads are essentially subheads of subheads. They appear in black type in the Quarterly and in a smaller font. Like Level 1 subheads, they should contain no more than six words.
Current footnotes:	Notes should be formatted as endnotes (NOT footnotes) and should be indented slightly. A period should be placed after each numeral.
